

GENERAL AVIATION TERMINAL

Freeman Field Seymour, IN

Designed in 2006 and finished in Spring of 2007, this municipal airport terminal is more than an administration center, a public meeting space, and a way-station for passengers and pilots. Its imagery pays tribute to the historic past of this airport, which was an advance pilot training station during WWII.

Silhouette

Walk-way from Public Parking to Flight Line and Terminal

View from Flight Line

